Ralph and I, along with Sid and Donna, recently completed a three week motorcycle journey to the east coast to complete one of the rides on our bucket list. We traveled up to Niagari Falls across and toured the New England states and headed down the coast home. Detoured off the coast line thanks to the hurricane. I can say we were blessed with beautiful weather our entire trip. We got rained on one day for about an hour or hour and a half. The sites across these states were spectacular. I hope you saw our photos that I posted on Facebook. We are already looking forward to our next "BIG" adventure.

You all should have a copy of our calendar of events and I sure hope that you are going to join us for the rides, dinners and events.

We have a dinner ride to "The Red Minnow" on Saturday, stands up at the RaceTrac at 5:00PM. We also have the Georgia Ride In in Dillard Sept. 19-21 at the River Vista RV Park. Don't forget to make a pot of chili for the chili cook off on Friday night.

As many of you know our grandson Caleb has joined the army. We are so very proud of his decision to serve our country. Our family covets your prayers for him on his journey. Also pray for us as we already feel the void in our lives without him being here with us.

We are looking forward to some great new adventures for Chapter T, please come and join us.

Riding, friends, fun and of course food...what could be better?

Sometime I am at a loss about what to write about. I have been GA Chapter "T" MEC for nearly 4 years, and I was the GA District MEC for 2 years and try to submit an article each month, that adds up to well over 50 articles I have written. And 99% of them have been my own thoughts/words. There comes a time when I "borrow" thoughts from another author. When I read an article in a magazine that catches my attention, I like the idea of sharing it with others. This will be one of those times. Here goes... "Have you ever met someone who is dear to you and yet you have not seen them in a long time? It is a sad and joyful feeling. Sad when you realize how time has elapsed and the good intentions of staying in touch have been unduly prolonged. Yet a joyful experience in that a fire is rekindled, our lives are made whole again for a brief moment, memories flood our minds as we savor nostalgic moments of closeness and tenderness. On first recognition, a smile fills all faces and an enthusiasm pervades. Questions fill the air, such as, "How are you?" "How is your sweet spouse?" "What have you been doing?" "How are things going for you?" They express not only a genuine desire to know of each other, but they are a sincere way of saying "I love you," "I missed you," "Thank you for allowing me to share in your love." Little things take a different perspective. Little things like "You cut your hair," "You have lost weight," "You are looking good," all add to the excitement of your reunion. Memories take on a different light. Memories become more mellow, more inspiring and draw us closer. "Remember how hard we worked?" "Remember the long drives or the long nights?" Humorous occasions become even more hilarious: "Remember when we faked it?" "Remember when we forgot and then it was too late?" But most of all, tender moments grip at our hearts and remind us of God's gift of love to us. "Thank you for the time you made me feel special," "Thank you for sharing your tears with me," "Thank you for leveling with me." Think back, friends...remember when, remember who. Dig into the recesses of your heart for those who helped mold you into the special person you are today. Best of all, call someone you have not contacted in a long time, and say, "Thank you for being a part of the fabric of my life." "I love you!"

Boy how time gets away from us. Some of you remember our oldest grand daughter Haley "George" is what I call her. Gave her that name about time she took her first breath. Yep, I was standing right there with Vicky by her mothers side. She has traveled with us on many chapter trips. She rode on the back of our Daughter "Kerri's" GL1500 trike and with me sometimes. They both love riding and the members of Chapter T. However, they were very young at the time and had different paths to follow with career, school, etc. They still participate when they can with GWRRA and Chapter T. Well, George is getting married this weekend September 13th and I will have to be there on Thursday and Friday for the rehearsal on Thursday and the wedding on Friday. So it's needless the say, I will not be at the Chapter Gathering. I will miss seeing all yall, but I wouldn't miss her wedding for anything. Thank You all for accepting our family and being such good friends over the years.
